

County of San Diego
Revised: April 10, 2002
Reviewed: Spring 2003

CHILD ADVOCACY INVESTIGATOR TRAINEE
CHILD ADVOCACY INVESTIGATOR I
CHILD ADVOCACY INVESTIGATOR II
CHILD ADVOCACY INVESTIGATOR III

Class No. 005772
Class No. 005769
Class No. 005770
Class No. 005771

DEFINITION:

To perform a wide variety of investigative and casework services and provide case consultation and advice to the child's attorney, concerning juvenile dependency and delinquency cases; and to perform related work as required.

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS:

Positions allocated to these classes are found in the Public Defender's Office.

Child Advocacy Investigator Trainee: This is the trainee-level class in the Child Advocacy Investigator class series. Under immediate supervision, incumbents acquire a working knowledge of dependency/delinquency investigations and perform the least difficult dependency and delinquency investigations.

Child Advocacy Investigator I: This is the entry-level class. Under immediate supervision, incumbents perform routine investigations to assist the child's attorney in the evaluation and defense of dependency and delinquency cases.

Child Advocacy Investigator II: This is the journey-level class. Under general supervision, incumbents perform more difficult and complex dependency and delinquency investigations, and may provide technical guidance and training for Child Advocacy Investigator I staff.

Child Advocacy Investigator III: This is the first-line, supervisory-level class. Under direction, incumbents are responsible for training, supervising, and evaluating subordinate Child Advocacy Investigators and other support staff, and handle the most complex and difficult dependency and delinquency investigations.

EXAMPLES OF DUTIES:

Investigates Juvenile Court dependency matters involving physical abuse, sexual abuse, and neglect and delinquency matters; interviews the child client; interviews and subpoenas witnesses; photographs home sites, crime scenes, and other items of evidence; gathers information from schools, public and private agencies, evaluators, therapists, and other parties involved in dependency and delinquency cases; prepares written reports for use in the evaluation and defense of the child's case; assists in preparing the child client for testimony, and/or serves as support person for the child going through the court process; assists the attorney in arranging appearances of witnesses at trial and hearings, and in preparing presentations of evidence; testifies in court; evaluates the appropriateness of proposed placements for the minor; locates and works with alternative placements regarding disposition of delinquency cases, and assists attorneys in all phases of dispositions; assesses the child's placement between review hearings, the provision of support services to the child and family, and the efforts by parents at reunification; advises the attorney on child's adjustment, behavior, and needs; and evaluates progress toward a permanent plan for the child.

Child Advocacy Investigator III: All of the duties listed above including: plans, organizes, and directs unit activities; trains, supervises, and evaluates subordinate Child Advocacy Investigators and other support staff; establishes procedures and performance standards for the unit; participates in the hiring, counseling, and disciplining of subordinate staff; reviews and implements departmental policies and procedures; assists in identifying and solving procedural and case management problems; works with attorneys to ensure case deadlines are met; and provides consultation for and performs the most difficult and complex dependency and delinquency investigations.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

Knowledge Level: T = Thorough; G = General; ? = Not Applicable

Classification Level: T = Child Advocacy Investigator Trainee

I = Child Advocacy Investigator I
 II = Child Advocacy Investigator II
 III = Child Advocacy Investigator III

Knowledge of:

T	I	II	III
G	G	T	T	Interviewing and investigation methods and techniques .
G	G	T	T	Laws, regulations, and court procedures related to juvenile dependency and delinquency matters.
G	G	T	T	Principles of human behavior and family dynamics.
G	G	T	T	Child development and adolescence, parenting techniques, substance abuse, causes and treatment of child abuse and family violence, and the effects of abuse on children.
G	G	G	G	Needs of individuals from diverse socio-economic and ethnic backgrounds.
G	G	G	G	Community resources and organizations.
G	G	G	G	Community child abuse and placement issues.
?	?	G	T	Principles and techniques of supervision and training.

Skills and Abilities to:

The following skills and abilities apply to all Child Advocacy Investigator classes:

- Compile, analyze, and evaluate information to draw logical conclusions and make sound recommendations.
- Work with attorneys in the preparation of cases in a law office setting.
- Establish workload priorities and manage a caseload.
- Prepare clear, accurate, and detailed written reports.
- Manage stress and adversarial circumstances.
- Communicate effectively and diplomatically in dealing with clients, professionals from other agencies, and the public.

Child Advocacy Investigator III (in addition to the above):

- Organize and prioritize the work assignments of subordinates.
- Monitor and evaluate the work performance of subordinates.
- Provide consultation and training to subordinate staff.

EDUCATION/EXPERIENCE:

Education, training, and/or experience, which demonstrates possession of knowledge and skills noted above. Examples of such education/experience are: A bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university, with at least 24 units in the social or behavioral sciences, AND:

Child Advocacy Investigator Trainee:

Six (6) months of experience as an intern or volunteer, performing juvenile dependency or delinquency investigation and/or casework services in a social service agency, law office, or child advocacy program.

Child Advocacy Investigator I:

Two (2) years of professional, full-time experience, performing juvenile dependency or delinquency investigation and/or casework services in a social service agency, law office, or child advocacy program.

Child Advocacy Investigator II:

Three (3) years of professional, full-time experience, performing juvenile dependency or delinquency investigation and/or casework services in a social service agency, law office, or child advocacy program.

Child Advocacy Investigator III:

Four (4) years of professional, full-time experience, performing juvenile dependency or delinquency investigation and/or casework services in a social service agency, law office, or child advocacy program.

SPECIAL NOTES, LICENSES, OR REQUIREMENTS:License:

A valid California Class C driver's license is required by the time of appointment or the ability to arrange for field transportation. Incumbents may be required to use their own personal vehicle.

Working Conditions:

Exposure to emotionally disturbed and potentially violent children and adults. Exposure to emotionally upsetting situations involving children who have been abused. Required to work in high crime and dangerous areas of the county. Standby, callback, and non-routine working hours may be required.

Background:

Must have a reputation for honesty and trustworthiness with no felony convictions. Misdemeanor convictions may be disqualifying depending on number, severity, and recency. Applicants will be subject to a thorough background check, which may include a polygraph examination.

Probationary Period:

Incumbents appointed to permanent positions in these classes shall serve a probationary period of twelve months. (Civil Service Rule 4.2.5).

005772 -- CHILD ADVOCACY INVESTIGATOR TRAINEE
005769 -- CHILD ADVOCACY INVESTIGATOR I
005770 -- CHILD ADVOCACY INVESTIGATOR II
005771 -- CHILD ADVOCACY INVESTIGATOR III